

Opening

Mary Ellen Lepionka and David Rhinelanders,
Co-Chairs, Gloucester Historical Commission

Awards

- Robert Apse – Education and Outreach
For his documentary video, The Stones of the Quarries
- "Jackie" Ellis Jameison – Preservationist
For her role in the restoration of the Meetinghouse Green at the corner of Washington Street and Ashland Place
- Rachel Meyer, Joshua Gerloff, Crystal Daley and Kathryn Khanwalkar – Preservationists
For their roles in the rehabilitation of the First Parish Burial Ground and Clark Cemetery
- Pam and Fred Grote – Restoration
For their restoration of the First Period colonial William Haskell House on Lincoln St.
- Joe Roman – Restoration
For his restoration of a Victorian house on Tolman St.
- Cultural Center at Rocky Neck – Adaptive Reuse
For maintaining historical integrity in the conversion of a church into an art gallery and community center
- Enduring Gloucester (Blog) – Education and Outreach
For their preservation of Gloucester's history through media in photographs, paintings, and articles
- Bryan and Rebecca Wells Sparkes – Restoration
For their restoration of an Arts and Crafts style house on Haskell St.
- Barbara and Lawrence Maver – Restoration
For their restoration of a house on Haskell St. built around 1900
- Aaron Carpenter and Rebecca Loos – Restoration
For their restoration of a Shingle Style house on Thurston Point Road
- Steve Pardee – Lifetime Achievement
For his work on the Gloucester Historical Commission and many contributions in preserving the City's historic resources

2015 Preservation Awards

Presented by the Gloucester Historical Commission

Sunday, the 17th of May, 2015, 2p.m.

The ceremony for the annual Gloucester Preservation Awards is held during National Preservation Month to honor the people and organizations that have made significant contributions to the preservation, protection, awareness, and documentation of Gloucester's long history.

The Gloucester Historical Commission:

David Rhineland, Mary Ellen Lepionka, Amanda Nash,
Jeff Crawford, Robert Whitmarsh, Thomas O'Keefe III and Leon Doucette

With special thanks to

Kurt Bradley

Granite Gallery Auditorium
Cape Ann Museum
27 Pleasant Street
Gloucester, Massachusetts